

Monday 17th March 2014

king Minos

Spike and Barry are in a palace in Spain and they were asked to build a labyrinth for wild animals.

Spike and Barry were chased by wild animals. They led the animals to the labyrinth because king Minos didn't want the wild animals to destroy his city.

King Minos was happy because the labyrinth was enormous and it could fit all the animals.

Now king Minos will be rich because Spike and Barry are selling lovey things.

Now Minos throw spike and Barry in a tower then spike invented wings to get out of here and Barry then jumped off and flew to close to the sun and fell into the sea and drowned.

The end!

By Ellis

