This is me on Vindolanda's gate to keep the Celts from destroying their city. The Celts had to crash the gate to get in but the Romans had stopped them.

This is a man who was good at aiming with a bow and arrow and he killed a deer. There were four soldiers who thanked the man because they have hunted that deer for years.

This is a man who is a teacher of Roman children and he told the children that the Romans invaded Britain and the children were happy. The man travelled along Britain to Scotland but there was a wall.
