

Persephone and Pearl's Adventure

Once there were two girls called Persephone and Pearl. They lived in France in a flat. "Pearl we need to go to the king to make a maze for his minotaur!" "A minotaur what's a minotaur". It is a beast half man half horse. They travelled all the way to America on camels. It took two day's to build it. When it was finished the king threw them in. Pearl began to cry. "We don't now how to get out". Oh yes we can we built it. Hurrah! Shouted Pearl. The minotaur was towering high. "Oh my goodness" said Pearl. Come on cried Persephone. We don't have much time. So they went round twenty-five corners. Finally they reached the end. Out of breath the two girls headed for a near by cave. "I know what to do we will fly" exclaimed Persephone. Know Pearl did not like the sound of this.

She did not want to die. Come on give it a try said Persephone. So every day they left some bird seeds outside.

Eventually they made two pair of sparkly wings. “Wow” said Pearl. Ok listen to the rules. Rule number one don’t fly to low and rule number two don’t fly to high. Okay moaned Pearl. So they both climbed to the top of the cave. Ok said Pearl pushing Persephone of the cave top, what shall I do now? Fly replied Persephone. Ok so Pearl ran and ran then she felt like she was flying and she was. It was probably amazing. Pearl started to fly to high. “Remember the rule” shouted Persephone. But Pearl didn’t listen she just flew higher. Persephone didn’t do anything she just stared. A few minutes later out of the sky came Pearl. Pearl was never seen again.

THE END!

By Hannah