Dear Trevor

We wanted to congratulate you on your school's Ofsted inspection last term. We were pleased that the overall effectiveness judgement remained good but also appreciate your ambition to be outstanding. We realise the huge amounts of hard work, commitment and dedication that all staff put into improving outcomes and life chances for children. We also appreciate that schools provide a wider experience and set of opportunities not necessarily covered by an inspection but we did want to recognise the school's significant achievement. Please pass our congratulations to all pupils, staff, governors, parents and carers.

With best wishes

Jill Hodges
