Village Macmillan Coffee Morning

On Friday morning, last week the school took part in the village Macmillan Coffee Morning which was hosted by Elaine and Niall at the Black Bull Pub. I must say that the thought of visiting the pub was a source of great adventure and excitement for the children. We visited in small groups and that was just as well because the event was extremely well attended. There was, as you would imagine, loads of tasty cakes and biscuits with lots of raffles and competitions. In the end the event raised a whopping £467.66. It was a lovely morning and thanks to Elaine and Niall for hosting it.
